Vs

Judge Edmonds

United States

10-20005

Motion for no use of Excessive Force on Defendant Abdulmutallab

FILED

AUG 25 2011

CLERK'S OFFICE, DETROIT-PSG
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

On the 24th of August 2011, between the hours of 5.00 am to 10.00 am, in the Holy month of Ramadan, Defendant Abdulmutallab, in Defense of Muhammad (Peace be Upon Him) [the Messenger of Allah to Mankind who is being defamed and abused by the United States of America] assaulted several officers from his cell.

As a result, Excessive Force was used to restrain Defendant Abdulmutallab who was already in a closed cell on his own.

2 of 2

The Defendant moves the court to order that no Excessive Force be used on Defendant Abdulmutallab in justly defending Muhammad (PBUH) and his Religion.

[The United States legally allows the defamation of Muhammad (PBUH), and by allowing so it is defaming and Abusing Him] PBUH
